A Note from the Director

There is something special and magical about theatre that is always difficult for me to articulate. Maybe it's that when all the elements of good storytelling come together, we lose ourselves in the moment and are transported away from our daily responsibilities and interruptions - especially in a world that has had so many changes and interruptions over the past two years. When I am able to let go of my life and live inside the world that Charles Dickens created, I find myself a kid again, just like when Christmas rolls around each year. It's just the best fun!

I have been a part of this production since the first time HPCT put it on in 2015 and "A Christmas Carol" quickly became one of the biggest parts of my Christmas tradition. This show has given me a special gift in some of the closest "new-old friends" in my life and it helped me through the lowest point of my adult life. It has never been easy work but has always been worth the time and energy that everyone gives to this special show. I LOVE IT!

No matter how many times we hear this story, it still remains one of the most powerful tales of transformation. At the heart of "A Christmas Carol" is a man whose life must change...or else. Whether we are willing to admit it or not, there is a little bit of Scrooge in each of us. Despite our good intentions, we race through our busy year, often losing sight of the important things in life: time with our loved ones, gratitude for our many gifts, and charity to help those in need.

That's the magic of "A Christmas Carol." We revisit the story each year: Scrooge, Bob Cratchit, Tiny Tim, and a group of ghosts are there waiting - still reminding us of our responsibility to one another. It reaffirms that Christmas time is "a good time, a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people below them as if they really were fellow passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys." That's why we tell this story over and over again. The human spirit is not cast in stone or incapable of renewal. "It's never too late to change." This show and this community of actors, designers, dancers, musicians, administrators, and supporters have certainly changed me.

Please join us as we travel to London to meet Ebenezer Scrooge and all of the people in his life as they reopen his heart to the spirit of Christmas. We hope to remind you that nothing needs to remain the same. Within us all we have the capacity to share, communicate, and love one another.

I need to thank all of you from the bottom of my heart for sharing this experience with me, no matter how many times we have shared it before. I'm very proud and thankful to all the cast, crew, orchestra, and all others involved in the success of this show.

"Families created by friendship as well as by birth."

Merry Christmas!

~Mike Lasley

Jenni would like to thank the cast and crew for their love and support, and her husband for making it possible.

About the Cast

Kristina Railsback (Mrs. Cratchit) is delighted to have been part of HPCT's A Christmas Carol from the beginning, playing Mrs. Cratchit. It is a treat to be a part of bringing this holiday classic to life every year! Other previous favorite roles include Lucy in You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, Mrs. Brill in Mary Poppins, Rose in Secret Garden, Mrs. Enysford-Hill in My Fair Lady, and Miss Thorne in Ruthless!

Giddion Reynolds (Ensemble) has been participating in theater since they were 8. The first time they were seen on stage was in 2016 when they played Nana in Peter Pan Jr. Some of Salem's other favorite roles include, Elsa in Frozen Jr., Want in A Christmas Carol: The Musical, Kate in Annie, and Jack Scott in High School Musical Jr. They would like to thank the entire production team for this opportunity.

Austin Rowland (Fred) is delighted to be spending Christmas Together on the HCPT stage for the 4th time. Austin was previously seen as Josh in "9 to 5" the musical. Some of his favorite roles include Mr. Mushnik (HPCT Little Shop of Horrors), The Escapologist (HPCT Matilda), and Lurch (WPAA The Addams Family). All the love to HPCT!

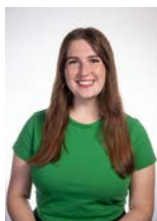

Maria Schnaith-Ivan (Ensemble) is beyond thrilled to share the stage with her family and the rest of this talented cast. While she can normally be found backstage, she recently performed in 9 to 5 and truly enjoyed acting and the sense of community from the fellow cast and crew. She actively serves on the HPCT Board of Directors. When not at theater, Maria is a corporate recruiter who enjoys spending time with family and friends, traveling, puzzling, and dancing at any given opportunity. Much love to Ryan, Sofia, and Sebastian, and all our family that traveled from far to see the show!

Ryan Schnaith-Ivan (Beadle) is really excited to be on stage for the first time with his whole family for this production. While he has no experience with musical theatre, he has had a blast singing and dancing alongside his wife, daughter, and son. While not on stage, Ryan is a high school counselor and coaches high school soccer and swimming. He'd like to thank his family for sharing their love of theatre and inspiring him to get out there with them. Love to Maria, Sofia, and Sebastian.

Sebastian Schnaith-Ivan (Tiny Tim) is very excited and grateful to be reprising his role as Tiny Tim this year! He is a 4th grader at Southwest Guilford Elementary School and this is his 5th performance with HPCT, having performed in Finding Nemo Jr. (Nemo), Matilda (Nigel), A Christmas Carol (Tiny Tim), and Frozen Jr. (Pabbie). He would love to thank his amazing family and friends for supporting him and his sister for inspiring him.

Sofia Schnaith-Ivan (Acolyte) is a junior at Bishop McGuinness High School. She has been doing theater for five years, both onstage and working backstage and in costumes. This marks her second acting performance with HPCT. Most recently, she directed her school's fall play, Puffs. Previous roles include ensemble (9 to 5), Ms. Darbus (High School Musical), Mrs. Bradman (Blithe Spirit), ensemble (Xanadu), Motorist (Clue), ensemble (Matilda Jr.), and Middle Elsa (Frozen Jr.). Sofia is excited to share the stage with her family and would like to thank them for all of their love and support!

Katy Smith (Emily) is 17 and has performed in over 20 shows with High Point Community Theater and Lexington Youth Theater. She is homeschooled and enjoys singing, performing on stage and baking. Some of her favorite roles include Mary in Mary Poppins (LYT), Ariel in The Little Mermaid (LYT) and Liesl Von Trapp in The Sound of Music (LYT). ## About the Cast

Margaret Stringer (Old Joe) has done multiple shows with HPCT. When not onstage she can be found sewing, writing, buying houseplants she has no room for, and swinging around various sharp pieces of metal. She would like to thank the production team for all of their hard work and support, and also for putting up with her nonsense.

Olivia Trauth (Acolyte) is so excited to be back for her fifth year in A Christmas Carol! She is an 11th grade homeschool student who enjoys reading and crocheting when not on stage. Some of her favorite roles include Jane Banks in Mary Poppins, Mary Lennox in The Secret Garden, and Les in Newsies.

Naia Turley (Ensemble) is excited to perform in HPCT's A Christmas Carol for the first time this year. She is so happy to be a part of this cast. This is Naia's second year performing in HPCT programs and she has been loving every minute of it. She has met some wonderful role models and friends along the way that she is very grateful for. Naia would like to thank her family and friends for all of their continued support.

Callie Weston (Fan) has been dancing and singing for 11 years. She is so excited to play Fan once more and she hopes you enjoy the show!

J. David White (Ensemble) This is my 21st show with HPCT. The first 19 were between 1989 and 2001. The 20th was last year's 8th annual production of A Christmas Carol: The Musical. Here's to #21 with the new "community" of players, and this retelling of the second-greatest Christmas story ever. Thanks always to my beautiful bride, Jean, for her unwavering support, as I "widow" her once more to trip the lights fantastic with fantastic HPCT. (blessed beyond belief) Smiles
