A Note from the Director

I would like to welcome you to our Fall production of Disney's Descendants: The Musical. We are honored you are here with us. The cast, crew, and creative team has worked tirelessly to bring this story to life for you amidst the laughter, excitement, and the pure joy of working together. This process has been rewarding for all involved. I couldn't be prouder of this show and the role it has played in this organization, one which truly belongs to the community. I'm honored to be making my directorial debut with Descendants.

This Summer, I received the call to direct Descendants. I wish I had the words to express how much this opportunity meant to me. Descendants has always been one of my favorite Disney movies. It's one of those I hold close to my heart simply because of the story it tells. However, when I took a step back and thought about producing Descendants in 2022, I became so inspired. We all know how challenging these past few years have been for all of us, socially and culturally. Our world has become divided simply by who we are and where we come from. If there is anything we need now, it's a story of acceptance and togetherness.

Descendants is a musical about the power of community. It teaches us the potential our world has when we take a moment to see the good in everyone we come across instead of the bad. The journey of the Villain Kid's from the Isle of the Lost to Auradon reminds us that no matter who we are, or where we come from, we ALL have something to contribute to the world around us. Descendants is no poisoned apple, it's a sprinkle of pixie dust that is capable of showing us how the world could be.

There is a line from our show that has spoken to me since the moment I read the script for the very first time. Ben and Mal sing, "We're Better Together standing side by side. This is our moment it's our time. So, we're different? Whatever. Everyone can shine. One generation in its prime. Cause we're Better Together!" I hope this phrase of music moves you like it did me.

Here's to a new generation. One which practices kindness and celebrates our differences. A generation that honors unity in diversity, ensuring every individual has their moment to shine. One that embraces everyone with open arms and stands together in times of strength and in times of weakness. A generation that believes our greatest days lie ahead, one that changes our world.

Thank you for being here with us. I hope you enjoy the show!

Jackson Barnes (Director) is a creative artist based in the Piedmont Triad. In May, he graduated from High Point University with his BA in Theatre Performance, concentration in Musical Theatre. Jackson is currently in Graduate school to obtain his Masters in Communication and Leadership. In addition, he has trained at The Broadway Collective, a rigorous Musical Theatre academy where he has studied with Tony awarding winning performers and directors. Jackson has been performing across NC for the past sixteen years. His most recent roles include: Jesus (Godspell), Jimmy Ray (Bright Star), Angel (Kinky Boots), Brad (The Rocky Horror Show), and Leaf Conebear (Spelling Bee). He was the proud recipient of HPU's Excellence in Performance award for his portrayal of Jesus in Godspell. In 2018, Jackson made his NYC debut when he performed in the pilot productions of Chicago: High School Edition and Nice Work If You Can Get It: Young Performers Edition with iTheatrics, where he originated the role of Cookie McGee. Special thanks to his family, friends, and mentors who have supported him in his directorial debut.
